Ingredients:

Concentrated Collagen Catalyst Peptide blend:

Our concentrated blend contains all the essential amino acids, plus many others, including the 3 amino acids currently considered to be key in collagen production—proline, lysine and glycine.

Purple Sweet Potato – With more potassium than a banana and high in vitamin C, purple sweet potato has been shown in studies to contribute to lower blood pressure and provide a high level of anti-oxidant protection.

Pumpkin Seed – Pumpkin Seed is low in calories and high in vitamins and minerals including beta carotene and vitamin C.

Sunflower Seed – This seed is an excellent source of vitamin E and regular consumption boosts brain health and helps skin achieve a healthy glow.

Royal Bee Jelly – Royal Bee Jelly a super food with more than 180 known beneficial biological compounds, including all the B-vitamins (even B-12) and vitamins A, C, D and E.

Regal Super Fruit blend:

Baobab – Baobab trees are known as the tree of life because their trunks can hold up to 1200 gallons of water and their fruit is a super fruit with 7-10 times the vitamin C of oranges. Baobab has also been studied for its support of healthy blood glucose levels and anti-inflammatory contributions.

Camu Camu - Considered a super fruit, Camu Camu is native to the Amazon rainforest. It looks and tastes like a tart cherry. Besides being high in Vitamin C, studies point to benefits in healthy blood pressure levels, inflammation management, and weight management through improved gut bacteria and metabolism.

Proprietary collagen and mood enhancing blend:

Moringa Leaf - A complete protein, Moringa Leaf contains all 3 amino acids needed for collagen production. As an adaptogen, Moringa Leaf supports a healthy stress response and is also rich in many vitamins and minerals..

Butterfly Pea – Butterfly Pea has been used in both Chinese and Ayurvedic traditional medicine as a brain booster, anti-stress and calmative nutritional. It contains flavonoids known to boost collagen production.

Sweet Potato Leaf – This leaf contains high amounts of beta-carotene, lutein and vitamin A, among many other nutrients. It is comparable to spinach in nutrient richness and has been studied for eye and skin support and protection.

Bamboo - An excellent source of silica, Bamboo assists in the production of healthy hair, skin and nails. This nutrient rich plant also supports healthy respiratory function.

Tremella Mushroom - contains polysaccharides known as hyaluronic acid, which helps with skin moisture and collagen production, among other important functions.

Aloe Vera Gel – This highly concentrated extract helps support skin regeneration and improves skin elasticity.

Other Ingredients: Natural Mixed Strawberry and Blueberry Flavor, Stevia Extract, Sea Salt, Xanthan Gum, Citric Acid

The Solle Difference

Unlike most collagen supplements, Solle Royal is 100% plant sourced and uses concentrated extracts of plants high in key peptides and combines them with superfruits high in vitamin C along with the adaptogen Moringa. This unique blend of ingredients, which is easily assimilated, stimulates the highly efficient, natural production of collagen.
